The next order will go in late in the spring.

SEEK AND YE 'MIGHT' FIND

As you know, the "lost and found" is here in the Business Office. As usual, this season more items have been reported lost and not turned in to the lost and found than items we do have here.

Among other things, a tan rain coat, a tan windbreaker, a Hebrew book, a blue spiral binder, a watch, a leather saddle bag, and a leather case have been reported lost. Perhaps they were found somewhere other than the Business Office, since they were never turned in here.

The following items have been turned in recently as "found": a video tape and a brown coat from the chapel, and a pair of glasses which had been left at the switchboard for some time.

Being able to match up these items gives us cause for celebration since it occurs so rarely. Thank you for your help.

CHARLESWORTH LECTURE

Wednesday, February 27, Miller Chapel, 1:30 p.m.

James H. Charlesworth, George L. Collord Professor of New Testament will deliver his inaugural lecture on the subject "History, Theology, and the Mysterium Christi." Barriers to Jesus research have crumbled, according to Dr. Charlesworth, and it is time to assess progress in the search for historical knowledge of Jesus of Nazareth. This is made possible by the hundreds of documents now available from pre-seventy A.D. Judaism. A scholar in the field of New Testament, Dr. Charlesworth has published six books, including The Odes of Solomon and is the editor of John and Qumran.

ANNUAL STEWARDSHIP BOOK SALE

Thursday, February 28, & Friday, March 1, Auditorium
A highlight of the school year, the PTS Stewardship Committee will hold its annual spring book sale. Proceeds again will be used to support theological libraries in third world seminaries. Last year $2,700 was realized from book sales.

You can participate in this worthwhile project by donating books from your personal or church libraries. If you are currently in a church, please announce to parishioners the need for book donations. For transporting books and arranging pick-ups, contact Mark Southard at 452-7603.

"EMBRACE THE WORLD" CONFERENCE

Monday, February 25, The Cenacle Retreat Center, Highland Park, New Jersey, 9:30 - 4:00 p.m. In conjunction with the New Jersey Council of Churches Faith & Order Commission, the NYC/NJ "Embrace the World" group will sponsor a one-day conference on the "Baptism, Eucharist, and Ministry" document. The presenters, Protestant, Orthodox, and Roman Catholic respectively, will include brief small group question and discussion periods. The objective is two-fold: 1) to provide a substantial theological examination of the three categories from differing ecclesiastical traditions, and 2) to see how this informs the life and mission of churches today and supports church efforts toward a visible unity in a broken world. A third focus is the connection between local and global developments, as related to faith & order issues.

"Embrace the World" is a follow-up program of ecumenical education for action stemming from the 1983 World Council of Churches meeting in Vancouver, and is one of four groups across North America pursuing the issues discussed at Vancouver, specifically as they apply to the American scene. The cost and registration information is posted on the public information bulletin board, 110 Administration. For two persons assisting as stewards, the fee is waived. The maximum capacity at The Cenacle is 45 and there is an application deadline: February 15.

MICHAEL BLANCHARD IN CONCERT

Saturday, February 16, Mackay Center Auditorium, 8:00 p.m.
Don't miss one of Christian music's most humorous, yet reflective, performers. Noel Paul Stookey says of Michael, "Mike Blanchard is a writer/singer/spokesman for the Christian faith in such a way that it conjures up an image of C. S. Lewis with a guitar... and a virtuoso at that." Plan to see Michael Blanchard at the Mackay Campus Center Auditorium Saturday evening. A free will offering will be taken.

Attorney Paul Armstrong, legal counsel to the family of Karen Ann Quinlan, will moderate the hearing. NEW INTEREST GROUP

A new student group "And Now for Something Completely New and Different," has been formed to meet what many at PTS perceive as the need for a more supportive community environment, and to seek Biblical perspectives on topics of faith and contemporary issues. We feel this can best be accomplished through the format of our weekly meetings where guest speakers will give a presentation (15 minutes) followed by an open discussion (45 minutes). At present, meetings have been scheduled for Tuesdays between 12:30 and 1:30 p.m. in the Main Lounge. Please join us.

PRESBYTERIAN (U.S.A.) SENIORS

"The Graduate Study Fellowship for the Parish Ministry" will be awarded to a graduating Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) senior at Commencement 1985. A description of the Fellowship is on pages 148-149 of the present Seminary catalogue. This Fellowship is to be used for travel and study overseas and does not have to be toward a degree. It is intended for one who is dedicated to parish ministry rather than to an academic career. The Fellowship will be in the amount of $9000.00. Seniors who wish to be considered for this award can pick up an application form in the Office of the Dean of the Seminary, 128 Administration Building, by Monday, March 4. Completed applications must be returned by March 15 at 12:00 noon. A decision on the award will be made in mid-April.

THEOLOGY TODAY OFFER

Theology Today is publishing several issues on special topics for which members of the Princeton Seminary faculty are guest editors. The January 1985 issue, focusing on "theology and anthropology," was edited by Professor Mark Taylor. In April, an issue devoted to new thinking in practical theology will come off the presses. Professor Thomas Long edited that issue. "The educational ministry of the church" will be the theme of the July issue which Professor Craig Dykstra is editing. Professor Patrick Miller is guest editor for the October issue on Biblical studies.

Now is a great time to subscribe. A special annual subscription rate of $10.00 is being offered to Seminary students. Seniors, especially, should take advantage of this rate while it is available. Get in the habit of reading this famous theological journal. Over 10,000 subscribers--more than any other such journal in the world--join them! See Nancy Pike in the Theology Today office, Administration Building, room 32 (first floor).

SENIOR CLASS GIFT

The Class of 1985 has begun its campaign to pledge toward its class gift to the Seminary. All members of the class will be contacted with a pledge card and will be asked to pledge generously toward an "investment in hope," the theme of the gift. No specific goal has been set, but the class would like to raise over $60,000, which last year's class pledged.

That would require a $40-per-year pledge from every class member. We hope to collect all pledges by Saturday, May 11. Seniors, please consider investing in hope for P.T.S. and hope for the world!
